50 Stars Auto Parts – Warranty Terms

Warranty period

Standard 30-Day 'Parts Replacement Only' Warranty:

- The standard warranty offered by 50 Stars Auto Parts is a 30-day warranty, and it covers parts replacement only. This means that within the first 30 days after purchase, if a part is found to be defective, the company will replace it.

Optional 90-Day Warranty:

- There is an optional 90-day warranty available for purchase separately. If a customer chooses this option, it extends the standard warranty period by an additional 60 days, resulting in a total coverage period of 90 days.

Extension of Standard Warranty Period:

- The 90-day warranty option extends the standard warranty, providing an additional 60 days of coverage beyond the initial 30-day period.

Consistency in Terms and Conditions:

- The terms and conditions for both the 30-day and 90-day warranties are stated to be the same. This means that the coverage, limitations, and any other conditions are consistent between the two warranty options.

Non-Legally Binding Terms Outside Warranty Period:

- It's explicitly mentioned that warranty terms and conditions are not legally binding outside of the warranty period. This indicates that any obligations or commitments outlined in the warranty do not hold legal weight beyond the specified coverage period.

This warranty policy provides customers with the flexibility to choose between a standard 30-day warranty or an extended 90-day warranty for an additional cost. It's essential for customers to carefully review the terms and conditions of the warranty before making a purchase decision. Additionally, understanding that the warranty terms are not legally binding outside of the coverage period is important for both the company and the customers involved. If there are any questions or concerns, it's advisable to seek clarification from 50 Stars Auto Parts.

Warranty Activation

The warranty period will begin automatically based on a specific trigger event. In this case, the triggering event is the delivery date of the unit.

Delivery Date Recorded by Shipping Carrier's Documentation:

- The delivery date is determined and recorded by the shipping carrier's documentation. This documentation serves as evidence to verify the purchaser's acceptance of the delivery.

Verification of Delivery Acceptance:

- The warranty activation is contingent upon the purchaser's acceptance of the delivery. This implies that the warranty period begins once the purchaser acknowledges receipt of the unit.

Automatic Activation:

- The statement emphasizes that the warranty period starts automatically on the delivery date. There may not be a separate action required from the purchaser to initiate the warranty; it is activated by the occurrence of the specified event.

In summary, the warranty for the unit becomes active automatically based on the recorded delivery date as documented by the shipping carrier. This approach ensures a clear and objective starting point for the warranty period, linking it to the moment the unit is officially delivered and accepted by the purchaser. Customers should be aware of this activation mechanism and keep records of the delivery documentation for warranty-related purposes. If there are any questions or concerns about warranty activation, it's advisable to refer to the specific terms and conditions provided by the warranty documentation or to seek clarification from the seller or manufacturer.

50 Stars Auto Parts – Warranty Terms

Warranty Policy

Exclusion of Labor Costs and Storage Charges:

- The warranty explicitly states that labor costs and storage charges are not covered. This is a common practice in many warranties, where coverage is limited to the replacement or repair of the defective part itself.

Non-Transferable Warranty:

- The warranty is specified as non-transferable, meaning it applies only to the original purchaser. This restriction is important for potential buyers to be aware of when considering the purchase of a used auto part covered by this warranty.

Responsibility for Defective Parts:

- In the event of a defective part delivery, 50 Stars Auto Parts takes responsibility for fixing or replacing the part/components covered by the warranty. This reflects a commitment to addressing issues with the delivered parts.

Refund for Unavailable Replacement Parts:

- If a part needs replacement, and a suitable replacement is not available, the company reserves the right to refund the customer the cost of the replacement part, with the stipulation that the refund cannot exceed the original purchase price.

Replacement with Another Used Unit:

- At the discretion of the company, 50 Stars Auto Parts may choose to replace the original defective part with another used working unit of the same type, with mileage equal to or more than the original unit. This provides flexibility in the resolution process.

Replacement Considered a Repair:

- The replacement of any part, transmission, or engine covered by the warranty is considered a repair and does not affect the length or terms of the original guarantee. This clarification is important in understanding the impact of replacements on the overall warranty coverage.

Submission of Warranty Claims:

- All warranty claims must be submitted during the specified warranty period, and the submission should include an original invoice copy. This requirement emphasizes the importance of timely reporting of any issues covered by the warranty.

This detailed explanation of warranty terms helps clarify the company's responsibilities, limitations, and the process for handling defective parts. Customers are encouraged to thoroughly understand these terms and conditions to ensure a smooth and transparent experience when dealing with warranty claims.

ABS (Anti Braking System):

Guaranteed Inspection and Working Condition:

- The warranty assures that the ABS will be inspected and confirmed to be in good working condition at the time of sale.

Reprogramming by Authorized Dealer:

- The statement acknowledges that the ABS may require reprogramming, and this task should be carried out by an authorized dealer. This implies that certain ABS-related issues might be resolved through reprogramming.

Coverage Limited to the Part, Not Reprogramming:

- The warranty explicitly states that coverage is provided for the ABS part itself but does not extend to cover the costs associated with reprogramming the ABS module. This means that if reprogramming is required, the purchaser may be responsible for associated expenses.

Reflash or Reprogramming of ABS Module:

- The specific mention of "reflash" or "reprogramme" indicates that the ABS module may need software updates or modifications to ensure proper functioning.

50 Stars Auto Parts – Warranty Terms

- Several components and accessories are listed as not covered by the warranty. These include manifolds, gaskets, seals, hoses, oil pans, timing belts and covers, fuel injection, carburetors, turbos, starters, air compressors, alternators, power steering pumps, optical distributors, and electrical water pumps.

Voiding Warranty with Heat Tab Damage:

- The warranty is stated to be voided if the engine's heat tab has been scorched or damaged. Heat tabs are often used as indicators of engine overheating or potential issues.

These warranty terms provide customers with a clear understanding of what is covered and what is not when it comes to engines. It is crucial for customers to carefully review and comprehend these terms before making a purchase, as it delineates the specific components and issues covered under the warranty and the conditions that may void the warranty. If there are any uncertainties, customers are encouraged to seek clarification from the company.

These instructions not only provide guidance on what is covered under the warranty for transmissions but also offer important recommendations for the proper installation and maintenance of the transmission to ensure optimal performance and longevity. Following these guidelines is essential for preserving the warranty coverage and maximizing the reliability of the installed transmission.

Carburetor:

“Sold As Is”:

- The carburetor is explicitly stated to be sold “as is.” This phrase typically means that the buyer is purchasing the item in its current condition, with no specific promises or guarantees regarding its performance or condition.

Guaranteed Rebuildable:

- Despite being sold “as is,” there is a guarantee that the carburetor is rebuildable. This suggests that, while no specific warranty is provided, the buyer can reasonably expect that the carburetor can be rebuilt if needed.

In summary, the statement indicates that the carburetor is being sold without any warranty coverage for its current condition. However, the assurance that it is guaranteed rebuildable provides some confidence to the buyer that, if necessary, they can undertake the rebuilding process to restore or improve the carburetor’s functionality. Buyers should be aware of the “as is” nature of the sale and consider the rebuildable guarantee when making a purchase decision.

Testing and Condition Assurance:
